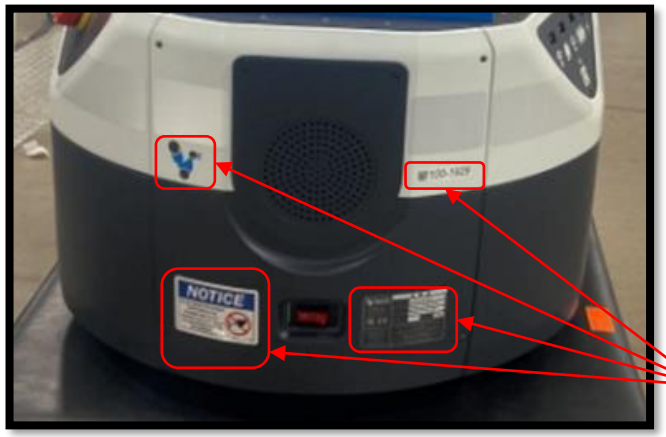
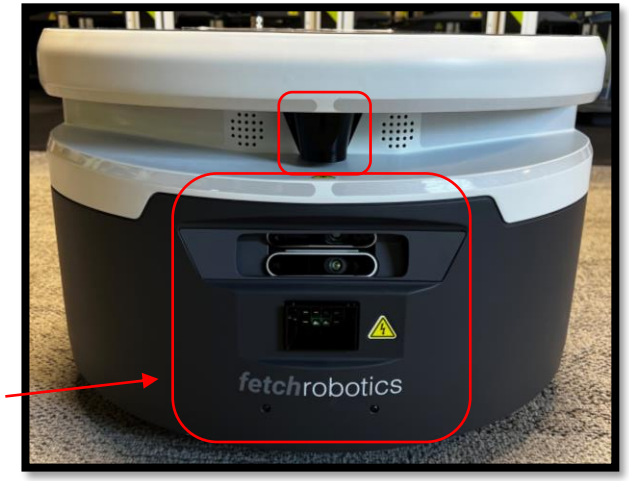
F100 – Surface classification for cosmetic inspection

Confidential Information



Class A



Class A

This area is Class B, orange peel condition in paint is acceptable in this area

Top surface is Class A when F100 is shipped alone.

If F100 will be shipped with an accessory, Top surface is Class B

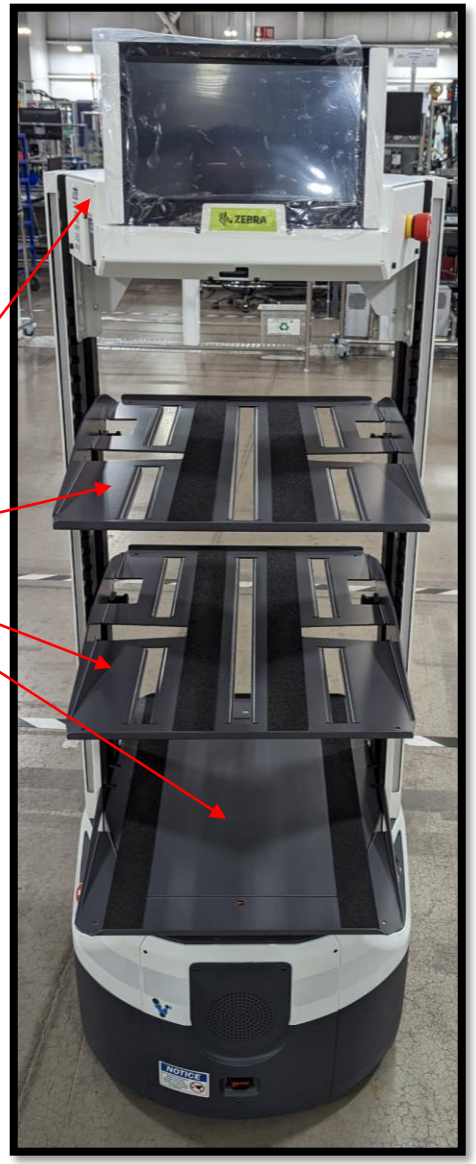
Notes:

1. Follow Cosmetic Spec 101-00010
2. Areas indicated above are Class A; all remaining visible areas in F100 are Class B

Rev B

Flexshelf Single / Dual – Surface classification for cosmetic inspection

Class B



Class A

Class A includes screen, label and metal frame around screen

Class A

Notes:

1. Follow Cosmetic Spec 101-00010
2. Screen protector needs to be removed for Visual inspection.
3. Screen protector needs to be placed back in the screen after the visual inspection (over Zebra label)
4. Areas not visible to end customer in standard operation mode are not part of Visual Inspection scope (such as: bottom part of the tray, bottom part of Top-cover, inner side of columns)

Rev B

HMI – Surface classification for cosmetic inspection

Class B

Class A

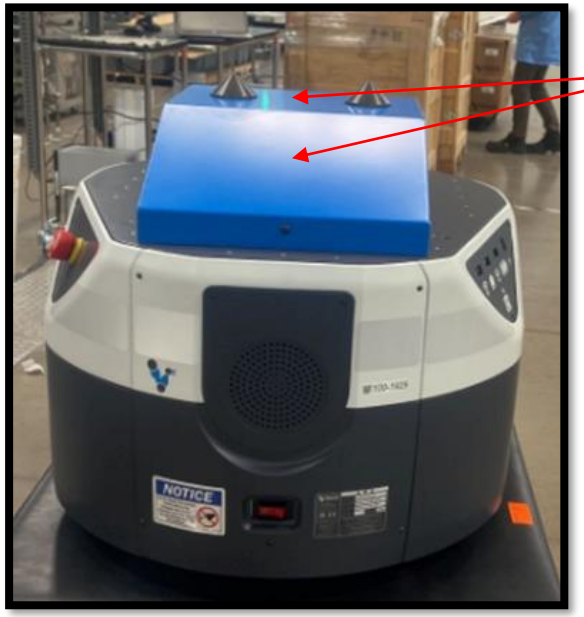
Class A includes screen, label and metal frame around screen

Notes:

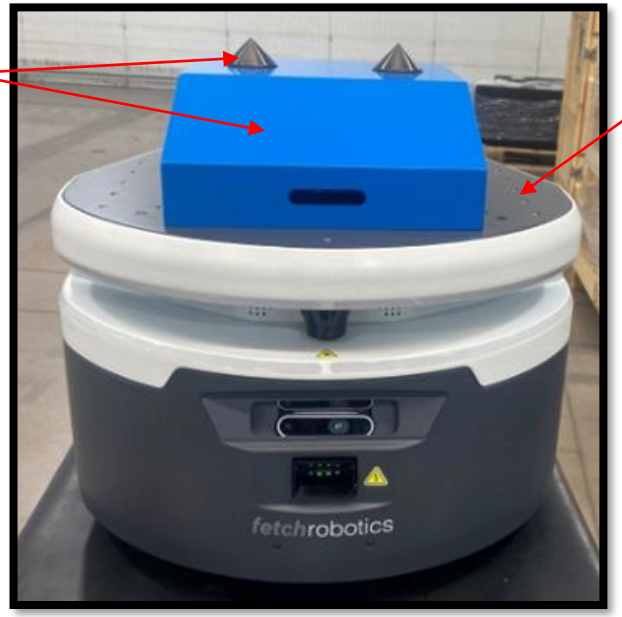
1. Follow Cosmetic Spec 101-00010
2. Screen protector needs to be removed for Visual inspection.
3. Screen protector needs to be placed back in the screen after the visual inspection (over metal frame)
4. Areas not visible to end customer in standard operation mode are not part of Visual Inspection scope (such as: bottom part of the tray)

Rev B

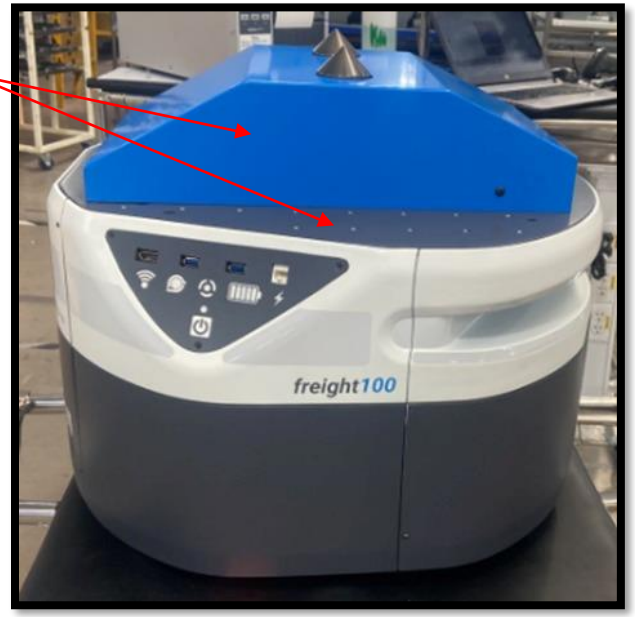
Cart Connect – Surface classification for cosmetic inspection



Class A



Class B



Notes:

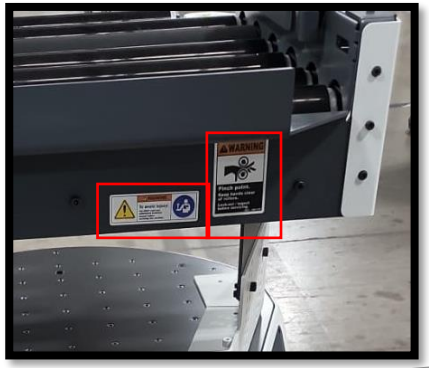
1. Follow Cosmetic Spec 101-00010

Rev B

Roller Top – Surface classification for cosmetic inspection

Class B

Class B



Class A

Notes:
1. Follow Cosmetic Spec 101-00010
2. Areas not visible to end customer in standard operation mode are not part of Visual Inspection scope (such as: bottom part of the roller top, rollers, inner side of columns)

Rev B