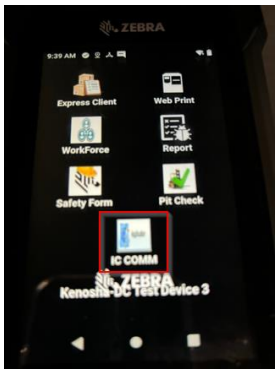
1 INVENTORY CONTROL COMMUNICATION FORM

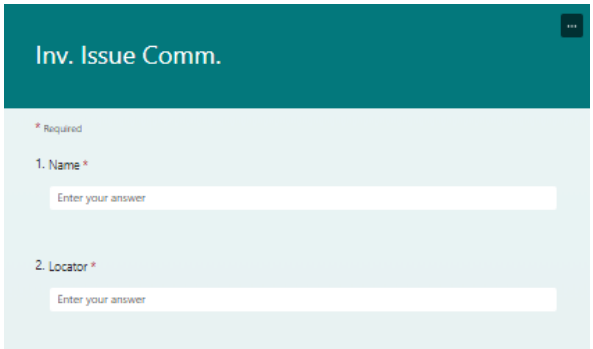
This form is used to communicate known inventory issues to the inventory control team (IC) to investigate and correct the situation. This can be used in lieu of the PTT and handwritten notes being passed on to the IC team.

The information entered is stored in the cloud for the IC team to track, correct and close the incidences.

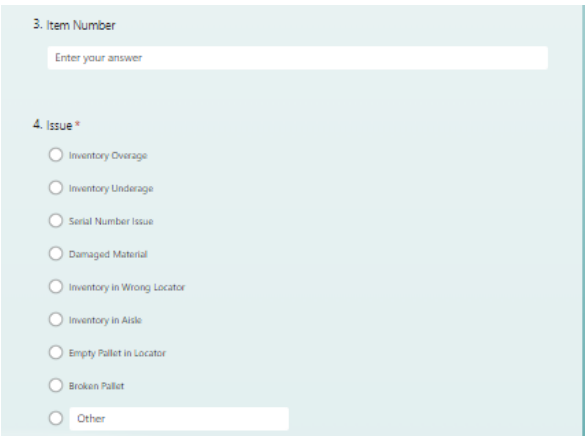
- This form is stored on the home screen of all handheld scanners in the warehouse.
  - Navigate to the home screen and click on the "IC COMM" icon.



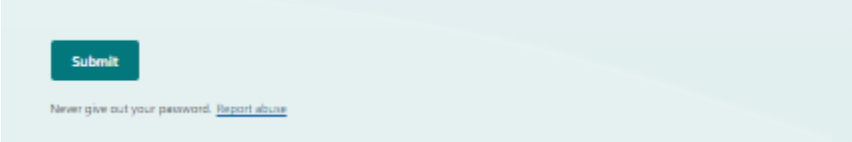
- Scan or enter the following information
  - Scan your badge or key in your name or employee ID number
  - Scan the locator barcode where the issue exists



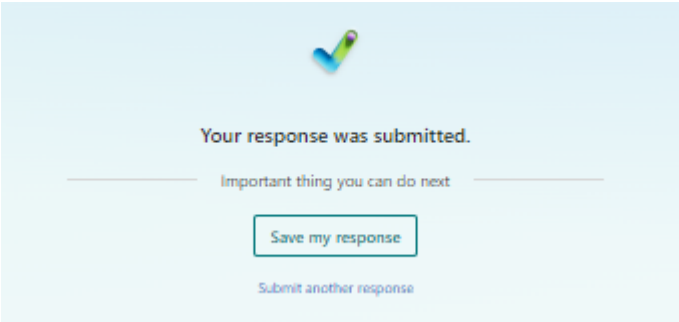
- Scan or enter the following information
  - If appropriate scan or key in the item number
  - Select the appropriate issue
    - Select other if appropriate and key in general text of the issue

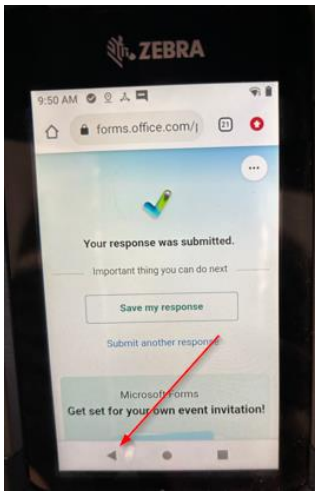


- After filling the in the information above, click on “Submit”



- If additional submittals are required click on “Submit another response” else proceed to the next step





- Once finished submitting responses, click on the arrow depicted below to navigate back to where you were previously